NSW's best of the best

Winners are grinner as the 2019 NSW Tourism Award for Caravan and Holiday Parks is announced.

The 2019 NSW Tourism Awards winners have been announced. These prestigious awards recognise tourism products and businesses delivering the most outstanding service to guests in NSW.

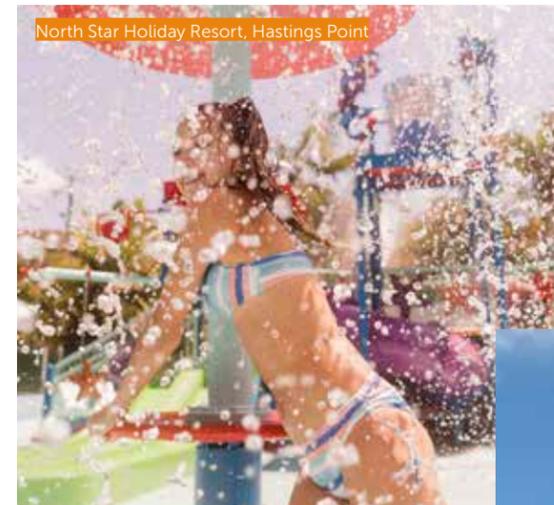

So our adventure-loving readers can plan their upcoming camping and caravanning holidays around the kid-friendly winners of the 2019 NSW Tourism Award for Caravan and Holiday Parks, we're sharing some of the reasons why these places have been voted the best of the best.

Gold Winner

NRMA Port Macquarie Breakwall Holiday Park

The NRMA Port Macquarie Breakwall Holiday Park enjoys an enviable location, situated along the town's iconic coloured-rock breakwall and bordered by beach and river, right in the heart of town.

Choose from a range of accommodation including luxurious riverside cabins and studios, plus powered and unpowered sites for caravans and camping. The park's broad range of features and facilities include a kids' club during school holiday periods, TV room, children's playground and swimming pool.

Its proximity to some of the region's best beaches, as well as coastal walks, restaurants and cafes, and all the kid-friendly fun Port Macquarie has to offer, make it easy to see why this family-friendly holiday park got the gold. nrmaparksandresorts.com.au

Silver Winner

Reflections Holiday Parks Seal Rocks

The perfect place to disconnect from day to day distractions and reconnect with family and friends, Reflections Holiday Parks Seal Rocks is a friendly and tranquil sanctuary located on the mid-north coast of NSW. A waterfront position between beach and bush means easy access to fishing, boating, swimming and hiking, while the huge range of on-site facilities and activities at the extensively refurbished park includes a camp kitchen, barbecue area and a playground that promotes exploration and fun. A variety of accommodation styles for all budgets means every family can enjoy a taste of seaside village life in this pocket of paradise. reflectionsholidayparks.com.au

Bronze Winner

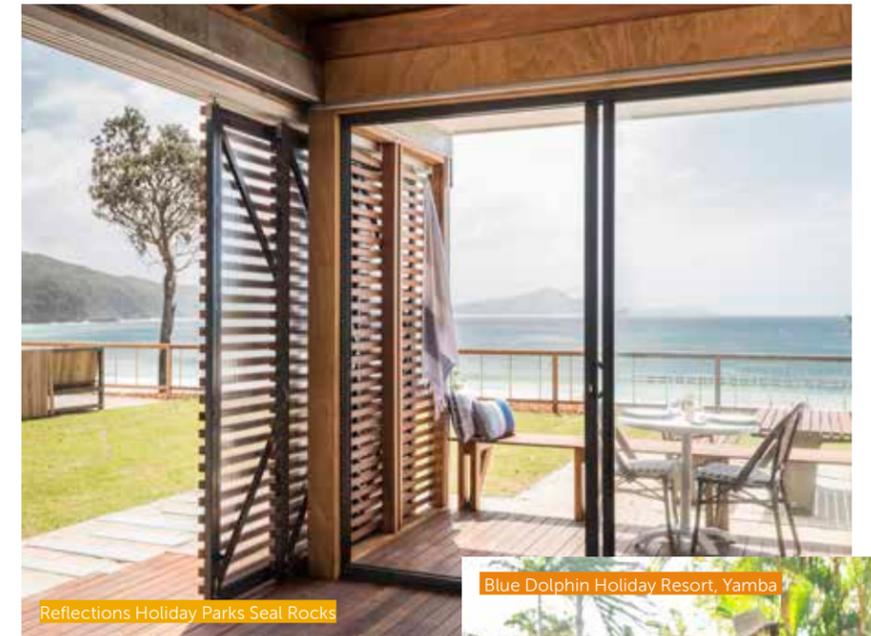

Ingenia Holidays South West Rocks

Pet-friendly Ingenia Holidays South West Rocks, positioned in a shady waterfront reserve on the banks of a scenic tidal waterway, is a brilliant destination resort for lovers of fishing, surfing and other water sports. Accommodation ranges from powered and unpowered sites through to caravans and upscale spa villas, so there's something to suit every budget. While the park is located just a short walk from the town centre and some of South West Rocks' local beaches, the resort-style pool, playground and kids' club mean there are plenty of reasons to just stay and play. ingeniaholidays.com.au

Holidays with Kids would like to offer our congratulations to all of this year's deserving winners and finalists, and thank them for raising the bar for family camping and caravanning holidays.

Highly Commended

BIG4 Great Lakes at Forster-Tuncurry

Just 220 kilometres north of Sydney in the picturesque twin towns of Forster-Tuncurry, the BIG4 Great Lakes holiday park combines action and relaxation in a languid lakefront location. From caravan and camping sites to modern self-contained accommodation, the choice is yours. Two heated pools, a water park, jumping pillow and playground, plus a boat ramp and on-site cafe and shop, make this pet-friendly park an oasis of fun for families. greatlakes.com.au

Finalists

Blue Dolphin Holiday Resort, Yamba

Set on the sandy shores of the Clarence River, Yamba's Blue Dolphin Holiday Resort is a destination retreat packed with fun adventures for families. With multiple pools, a waterpark, superb fishing and boating opportunities, playgrounds, a games room and kid's activities, this resort lures families back time and again. bluedolphin.com.au

North Star Holiday Resort, Hastings Point

Nestled between a pretty beach and a crystal-clear tidal estuary, North Star Holiday Resort is perfectly positioned to enjoy the offerings of both Tweed Heads and Byron. Along with a playground and kids' club, the two-storey aqua playground and two eight-metre-high tubular water slides make this park a winner with families every time. northstar.com.au

DC on the Lake Holiday Park, Mulwala

Surrounded by bushland on the banks of Lake Mulwala, DC on the Lake is a slice of Aussie paradise. Whether you choose to kick back and relax by the swimming pool or enjoy high-energy fun with water sports, a jumping pillow and pedal carts, there's entertainment for every taste. dconthelake.com.au

Blacksmiths Beachside Holiday Park, Lake Macquarie

A short walk to the surf of one of Lake Macquarie's best-patrolled beaches, this holiday park is the perfect spot for your next beach trip. A solar-heated pool means you can make a splash whatever the season and the outdoor fireplace is perfect for roasting marshmallows. lakemacholidayparks.com.au
